Harry Woolrich's Wife Sues Him For ivorce On the Grounds of Cruelty -Cases On Before Judge Cherry-New Actions Filed-Suit Against New Actions Filed—Suit Against SEND FOR THEIR UNIFORMS

One opinion was handed down by the OFFICERS OF THE 24TH PREPAR-Supreme court yesterday, it being in the case of Jacob Jacobsen and J. N. Johnson vs. Reuben Christensen, who

It decides a chattel mortgage matter, It decides a chattel mortgage matter, in connection with a sheep case, the opinion, which is by Justice Bartch and concurred in by the chief justice and Justice Miner, stating the facts. The suit was brought by the plaintiffs to recover dumages in the sum of 1716 for the alleged wrongful conversion of a certain number of sheep, by the defendant. The action was dismissed and the plaintiffs appealed.

The decisive question is whether the chattel mortgage, on which the suit

The memory of the late Joe Davis, the mining stock broker, who dropped lead of heart failure, was brought up by the case of Dr. A. K. Smith vs. F. D. Kimball, administrator of the estate. The doctor filed a bill for medical attendance amounting to $155, and, deter hearing the evidence, the court decided for the defendant, on the ground that no cause of action existed. In the case of the Colorado & Ulah Investment company vs. Sears & Jeremy, judgment was rendered for $11,890 on a stipulation that Sears & Jeremy prosecute an appeal to the supreme court against the Ulah National bank and if the court reverse the judgment, a new trial shall be granted.

J. H. Strauss, Charged With Passing Counterfeit Money, Goes Free-Goldberg et al. vs. Tanner et al.— (Mention this paper.) A Belated Grand Juror Appears and Squares Himself-Notes.

In the federal court vesterday the Inited States grand jury reported to judge Marshall three indictments of sail robbery against George F. Cloward, Lee West and Maurice Prevest, The first indictment was found against George F. Cloward. It was alleged that on July 10, 1897, while serving as mail carrier from Burrylle to Loa, he secreted and emberzied two checks, of the following description:

One was drawn by F. T. Tilton for $17.41, on the First National bank of Nephi, July 2, 1897, in favor of W. Frice, and addressed to Charles Martinson of Kocchiran.

Albany, N. Y., Dec. 6.—Mrs. Cody's cross-examination was concluded today in the trial of the indictments against ber, charging an attempt to blackmail the heirs of the late Jay Gould.

John Angell, husband of the woman who was alleged to have been married to Mr. Gould in his youth, was called. Ho is about 30 years of age. He testlied that when Mrs. Cody called the first time she fold his wife that she was sent by Mrs. Pierre to hunt up her mother. Willard Pace was called as the first witness in the case, and testified to the fact that defendant was engaged in carrying the mail between Loa and Furryllie during and at the time at which the letters alleged to have been abstracted from the mail bags were supposed to have been taken by Cloward. The examination of the witness by District Attorney Whittemore was here

The check was admitted in evidence, inder a protest from Mr. Schroeier that sufficient foundation for its intro-uction had not as yet been establish-

Judge Marshall allowed the temporary admission of the check bending a connection between it and other testimony to come hereafter, in the absence of which connection the pattern of the connection the pattern of which connection the pattern of which connection the pattern of which connection the pattern of the interview had by the government mail inspector with the defendant regarding the check in question and the circumstances in the case up to that time.

W. E. Robinson and M. L. Sheffleld, peatmaster at Floy, testified as to a conversation regarding the notes held at Mr. Robinson's home.

John King testified that he was the drawer of the note, and that he mailed it in the postoffice directed to William Snow, who, when placed on the stand, said he had seen his name on the back of the check, but it was not his endorsement.

Delia Taylor testified that she cashed the check for Cloward in August, 187, in a store where she was clerking, but that it was returned by the State Bank of Utah. She told Cloward that it had been returned by the State Bank of Utah. She told Cloward that it had been returned and he agreed to make it right, and made several avaments.

The examination of witnesses for the prosecution was concluded yesterday.

In the case of Leon B, Goldberg et al. vs. Nathan Tasher, fr., et al., Judge Marshall confirmed the report of B. F. Adams, receiver, and accepted his restance of the crowd was quiet.
